

Movies in the Park Begins 2014 Run, See Complete List On Link Here

Signal Hill Petroleum Presents Check to Partners of Parks, Receives Proclamation from Long Beach Mayor/City Council

(June 20, 2014, 6:50 a.m.) -- Movies in the Park, a summertime tradition, returns starting tonight (Friday June 20) and runs through most of August, made possible by Signal Hill Petroleum working with Partners of Parks. LBREPORT.com provides this link to a list of the movies, their dates and park locations which is also linked on our front page (www.LBREPORT.com) and article pages.

At the June 17 Long Beach City Council meeting, the City issued a Proclamation thanking Signal Hill Petroleum, a family owned energy company and local producer of oil and gas operating in Signal Hill and parts of Long Beach.

Signal Hill Petroleum Communications Specialist Stephanie Gillett spoke on behalf of the company: "We are committed to investing in the communities where our business footprint resides and are proud to partner with local programs that directly benefit our local residents and businesses...It is with great pleasure that we embark on our 9th consecutive year of sponsoring the Movies in the Park series with Partners of Parks."

Ms. Gillett thanked Mayor Foster, the Council and community members for supporting the program. Also present was Signal Hill Petroleum's Director of Business Development & Community Relations Debra Russell (outside frame in this video screen grab)

Signal Hill Petroleum presented Partners of Parks with a $27,500 check. In video screen grab (left to right): Long Beach Mayor Bob Foster, LB Parks, Rec & Marine Dir. George Chapjian, SHP Communications Specialist Stefanie Gillett, SHP Director of Business Development & Community Relations Debra Russell, Partners of Parks Board President Trina Schoonmaker, Partners of Parks Exec. Dir. Drew Satarino.

To view a full list of the movies, dates and park locations, click photo below.

Signal Hill Petroleum makes possible the quick access user friendly list of Movies in the Park on LBREPORT.com's front page and articles pages.

Click here for digital version